MANUFACTURES CUT IN IMPORT FIGURES

American Purchases From Various Other Countries Decreases in This Class.

A detailed statement of the nation's mport trade during the fiscal year 1915, essued by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce today, shows that Domestic Commerce today, shows that the decline in American purchases of foreign manufactures was responsible for the bulk of the year's loss of nearly a quarter of a billion dollars in im-ports.

Loss In Manufactures. The year's import trade totaled $1. 674,200,000, a decrease of $219,700,000, compared with 1914. Manufactures other than fodd products account for most of the reduction, their total imports in 1915 being $674,200,000, or $194,900,000 less than in the fiscal year 1914. Imports of crude materials for use in manufacturing in 1915 aggregated $575,100,000, a fall of $67,-700,000, compared with the previous year. Imports of foodstuffs amounted to $518,800,000, an increase of $43,200,000.

Many Show Decreases. There were heavy decreases in many articles. Coffee imports declined $4,-000,000; hides and skins. $16,000,000; chemicals, $11,000,000; silks, $17,000,000; cotton cals, $11,000,000; sliks, $17,000,000; cotton manufactures, $24,000,000; copper manufactures, $20,000,000; precious atones, $17,000,000, or less than half the value of the preceding year's total.

The most notable increase in imports was in cane sugar, which gained $73,-000,000, Meats gained $4,000,000, and raw cotton, $5,000,000.

Big Party to Glen Echo

Employes of the Washington Railway and Electric and Potomac Electric Power. Companies and their families are making nerry this afternoon at Glen Echo Park, where the annual outing under the auspices of the Washington Railway Relief Association is being held. Early this afternoon they began to arrive at the park, the older members of the families loaded down with baskets and packages of provisions for the picnic dinner, and the children clinging fondly to favorite dolls and other toys. Through the courtesy of Manager L. B. Schloss, of the park, a liberal number of complimentary tickets had been furnished each family, and the young people were not slow to take advantage of the opportunity thus offered. The merry-go-round was kept busy, while the roller coasters and other amusement facilities of the park were also popular.

Transportation to and from the park was furnished free by the Washington Railway and Electric Company. J. T. Moffett is chairman of the general committee on arrangements.

Here the annual outing man, understands handling horses, BOX 588. Times office.
